

BestKodiTips

BestKodiTips (BKT) is one of the most trusted platforms for tech enthusiasts. We at BKT try our best to provide helpful content around the discussed niche.

We are a team of FIVE writers, ONE Digital Marketing Expert and ONE Designer, and a web developer.

We aim to populate the blog with the latest updates, news, gadgets, mobile apps, tips & tricks about the latest happenings in the connected world of the Internet.

We share helpful information after thorough research. Besides our content, there are blogs & guides which are contributed by some of our readers and ghostwriters. Either case, you will always find our content and guides useful for your daily life tech use.

BKT at the backend is managed by Humans, which means that there will always be errors. Human errors are expected from our team. In this case, please bear with us and send your suggestions on a positive note instead of negativity. We always appreciate the feedback from our readers and try to make the required changes as soon as possible.
